

Wine Cork Trivet Kit

Congratulations on your purchase of the Epicureanist Cork Trivet Kit! We hope you enjoy showcasing your past wine adventures with the creation of your own unique trivet.

Here's what you'll need to get started:

- Bottle corks you've collected
- Glue (We recommend a hot glue gun, standard white glue or wood glue)

You may also need:

- A ruler
- A sharp knife
- A flathead screwdriver
- Sandpaper (included)

Your kit comes with a finished frame, complete with backing and sandpaper.

Here are some tips to creating your own cork pattern:

DESIGN and try your cork pattern first to ensure it fits properly in the trivet frame. This will help avoid having to detach glued corks should you need to start over.

DRAW a template on the backing of your kit with an erasable pencil if you are designing a complex pattern. Follow your template as you place and apply the corks to the kit.

COMPLETE one row at a time along the perimeter of the frame, placing corks one or two at a time either horizontally or vertically. Apply a healthy amount of glue to the corks before affixing to the backing of the kit, and ensure that it fits comfortably. Use a ruler as a guide to achieve level rows, and work from the sides of the frame toward the center. Once glued, allow several days to dry.

CUSTOMIZE your corks by cutting or sanding them, standing them up or varying their direction. The midsection of the kit may become like a jigsaw puzzle, requiring modified corks for a better fit. Use the wine-stained ends of corks to form patterns, initials or shapes.

REMOVE any cork carefully after it has been dried and glued. Use the flat end of a screwdriver to gently pry the cork from the backing without damaging the wood.

Enjoy your Cork Trivet!

Finance charges begin the date of invoice. Collection fees plus NSF fee of $50 will be added to your invoice, which you agree to promptly pay. Title to the goods does not pass until payment is received in full by Seller and Seller retains a security interest in the goods until they are paid for in full.

This warranty gives you specific legal rights and you may also have other rights which vary from state to state.

In the event of any dispute between Seller and Purchaser arising out of or relating to these terms and conditions or to the goods sold generally, Purchaser must first file a written claim with Seller within ten days of the occurrence giving rise to the claim and wait an additional thirty days for a response before initiating any legal action. In no event may Purchaser initiate any legal proceeding more than six months after the occurrence of the event giving rise to the dispute.

The above terms and conditions are the only ones governing this transaction and Seller makes no oral representations of any kind. These Terms and Conditions can only be modified in writing, signed by both Purchaser and Seller.
