The Gourmet Retailer | 2016 Editor's Pick

The Epicureanist Helix Whiskey Glass is one of The Gourmet Retailer's 2016 Editors' Picks for best new product. Editors from the popular specialty food and kitchenware retailer focused trade magazine judged numerous product entries on innovation and functionality, and selected the Helix due to its unique, hypnotic spinning function, stating, "The exclusive glass features a patent pending design that allows the glass to spin in place — aerating whiskey to unlock its complex flavors and aromas. It must be 5 o'clock somewhere."
