"House Beautiful is an interior decorating magazine that focuses on decorating and the domestic arts. First published in 1896, it is currently published by the Hearst Corporation, who began publishing it in 1934. It is the oldest still-published magazine in what is known as the 'shelter magazine' genre." – House Beautiful

Extra Appliance Credit

When you're cooking obsessed, it's hard to stop at the basics. Here's a list of things you didn't even know you needed.

SPECIALTY COFFEE MAKER

Skip the line. The Saeco Xelis can make two fancy drinks at a time with just a screen tap (and doesn't have to be descaled until you hit 5,000 cups). philips.com

Bake perfect bread loaves in no time.

CONVECTION STEAM OVEN

If you've never cooked in one, sign up at a kitchen showroom to see what they can do. This Thermador model can create a full meal, without transferring flavors between dishes. thermador.com

MULTI-COOKER

Chefman's Programmable model slow cooks, pressure cooks, steams, and keeps foods warm till you're home—basically everything a full oven can do, but for under $100. chefman.com

INTEGRATED BURNERS

Pitt Cooking burners are installed directly into countertops for a seamless look. Space them far enough apart so you can make two pots of chili at one time. pittcooking.com

HIDDEN WINE STORAGE

This "underground" VinCave by Vinotemp can hold up to 200 bottles of wine. Push-button elevation raises your collection up to the surface for easy access. vinotemp.com

SOFT ICE MAKER

For every Sonic-ice fan out there, the Opal Nugget Ice Maker keeps crunchy ice at the ready. Bonus: Ditching your plastic ice molds makes room for more ice cream. firstbuild.com

MODULAR COOKTOP

Need a little variety? Gaggenau's Vario series allows you to build your own station exactly the way you want it, including the option of downdraft ventilation. gaggenau.com

VACUUM BLENDER

By sucking the air out before blending, the SV500S from Kuvings makes drinks that won't separate and can be stored for up to a day. shopkuvings.com
